

Ownership rules are needed for diversity and integrity in the media. Currently a handful of media giants control the news sources of the majority of Americans, and collectively the information they provide is often as balanced as a marshmallow diet. Media giants are softening and dumbing down America. Please do not relax current ownership rules.

Sincerely,

Josh E. Baker, Ph.D.